

Scottish Friends of Palestine

Membership/affiliation application/renewal

The occupation continues, as does the brutality, the humiliation, the hardship and violence suffered at the hands of settlers and occupation forces alike. Millions of exiled refugees, decades on, are still denied their rights. With Israel blaming the victims for their plight, with the international community largely deferring to the wishes of Israel and her apologists there is no effective action to protect the Palestinian people or support their rights.

More than ever the Palestinian people need your understanding and support.
